The Interactive Story

A Fun Meeting Night Program

Combine your Club's meeting night program with your attendance prizes using an interactive story!

Start with a story, such as "Twas The Night Before Christmas (or make up your own!). Read it through, print out a copy and take it with you the next time you go shopping for club prizes. The idea is to associate key words in the story with prizes. For instance...

*'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house
Not a creature was stirring (1), not even a mouse (2);
The stockings (3) were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas (4) soon would be there.*

In this story, we have four attendance prizes. For (1), we have a long-handled cooking spoon (for stirring!); for (2), we have found a small plush mouse; for (3) a handmade stocking ornament; and for (4), Ed's Santa Forever! Ornament.

The fun in this program is not necessarily giving out the most expensive prizes, but creative, whimsical and fun ones. Think outside your traditional prizes... a roll of wrap, a bag of bows, candy bars, a box of ornament hooks, etc.

Prior to reading it out loud, you will need to randomly hand out numbered cards that match the numbers in the story. When reading, stop when you come to a number and ask for the member holding it—they then win that prize. Numbering the prizes themselves and having a helper will make the program flow much easier.
